THE WHITE CLIFFS HOTEL

The White Cliffs Hotel is an historic Kentish inn nestling in the heart of the village of St Margarets at Cliffe; the best kept secret of White Cliffs Country, ninety minutes from the city of London & ten minutes from the bustling port of Dover.

Centred around a beautiful, traditional Kentish weather boarded Inn, parts of which date back to Elizabethan times, the hotel has a stylish, contemporary feel without compromising the charm of this delightful historic building. In winter, guests can warm themselves by our roaring log fire whilst in summer they are welcome to enjoy the sun in our rose-filled walled garden.

The White Cliffs Hotel has 16 rooms in total, all non-smoking. There are 9 rooms in the mews overlooking the walled garden including two family suites that sleep up to 5. These are furnished in a coastal New England style to reflect the clapper boarded mews. In the main house are 4 superior rooms and a sumptuous four-poster room furnished in a country house style & on the top floor is the light & airy loft apartment. Pets are permitted to stay in some rooms by arrangement. All beds have hypo-allergenic feather pillows, & cosy goose down quilts.

All rooms are en suite, most with a bath with shower over. All are equipped with a large Flat screen TV with digital channels, alarm clock/radio, FREE WIFI Internet access and direct dial telephone. Fair trade tea/coffee making facilities, a hairdryer iron and ironing board.

THE BAY RESTAURANT

The Bay Restaurant, the beating heart of the hotel, is headed up by Gavin Oakley, the creative mastermind behind nearby award-winning Walleit's Court Country House Hotel. He brings his own brand of imagination and flair that has seen his team win recognition with entries in The Good Food Guide, a 2 rosette award in The AA Restaurant Guide and many other plaudits from international guides & press.

Eat in the The Bay Restaurant or on the terrace at breakfast, take lunch in the lounge by the fire in winter or in the walled garden in summer and dine in the oak-beamed Bay Restaurant in the evening.

The Bay Restaurant is open for lunch every day except Mondays and is open for dinner every evening except on Sundays when a complimentary chauffeur service will take you to The Restaurant at our sister hotel, Walleit's Court five minutes away for a truly special dining experience.

The Bay Restaurant is very popular locally and early booking is recommended to ensure a table. Any dietary requirements can be catered for so whether it is a light lunch or afternoon tea in the garden, an informal dinner, a special occasion or even an exclusive use event or private party The Bay Restaurant at The White Cliffs has something tempting to offer. Enjoy great whites and elegant reds with dinner. With our eclectic selection of locally brewed beers, freshly pressed juices and great value wines from near and far you are bound to find a tittle to take your fancy in our well-stocked bar which is open all day.

LOCAL FREE-RANGE ORGANIC SUSTAINABLE
