THE WHITE CLIFFS HOTEL

The White Cliffs Hotel is an historic inn nestling in the heart of the village of St Margarets at Cliffe; the best kept secret of White Cliffs Country, ninety minutes from the city of London & ten minutes from the port of Dover.

Centred around a beautiful, traditional Kentish weather boarded Inn, parts of which date back to Elizabethan times, the hotel has a stylish, contemporary feel without compromising the charm of this delightful historic building. In winter, guests can warm themselves by our roaring log fire whilst in summer they are welcome to enjoy the sun in our rose-filled walled garden.

Twenty-first Century comforts abound, crisp cotton linen, TVs, dvd & cd players, broadband wireless internet and ample parking should you come by car. Lose yourself in bubbles at bath time or get energised in the shower with luxurious Essential Elements bath treats.

All rooms are en suite, most with a bath with shower over. All are equipped with a TV, alarm clock/radio, WIFI Internet access and direct dial telephone. Tea/coffee making facilities, a hairdryer iron and ironing board are also available on request.

THE ESSENCE OF LIFE IN COASTAL ENGLAND

THE BAY RESTAURANT

Eat in the The Bay Restaurant or on the terrace at breakfast, take lunch in the lounge by the fire in winter or in the walled garden in summer and dine in the oak-beamed Bay Restaurant in the evening.

The Bay Restaurant is open for lunch every day except Mondays and is open for dinner every evening except on Sundays when in Summer a barbecue is fired up from 2 o'clock and in the cooler months of the year a Lounging menu is available on Sundays or a complimentary chauffeur service will take you to The Restaurant at Wallett's Court five minutes away.

The Bay Restaurant is very popular locally and early booking is recommended to ensure a table. Any dietary requirements can be catered for so whether it is a light lunch or afternoon tea in the garden, an informal dinner, a special occasion or even an exclusive use event or private party The Bay Restaurant at The White Cliffs has something tempting to offer. Enjoy great whites and elegant reds with dinner. With our eclectic selection of locally brewed beers, freshly pressed juices and great value wines from near and far you are bound to find a tittle to take your fancy in our well-stocked bar which is open all day.
